1. It is generally believed in Macedonia that an attack on Yugoslavia would come simultaneously from Bulgaria and Albania, whose troops would attempt to establish contact with each other in Macedonia.
2. The area near the Macedonian towns of Resen, Ohrid, Struga and Debar is off limits to all people but residents. Anyone wishing to visit these localities must have special permits from the Ministry of Foreign Affairs. The border defense positions are being prepared by troops who are not permitted to visit the neighboring towns.
3. It is now rumored that the Soviet Union has also promised Bulgaria the city of Kosovsko Mitrovica (sic) and the Trepcia mine in addition to the territory which formerly comprised the Greater Bulgaria of Sveti Stefan.
